"A Knapsack Full of Dreams: Memoirs of a Street Nurse", By: Cathy Crowe

Crowe is a street nurse, educator, author, and film maker. In 2018 she was invested into the Order of Canada for her trailblazing activism and lifelong devotion to using health care to advocate for social justice. Released this summer, her second book, Knapsack Full of Dreams: Memoirs of a Street Nurse, was published last June. In her book, she details her thirty years as a Street Nurse and sustained efforts to advocate for health equity, with passion, grace, and fortitude. A Knapsack Full of Dreams will move you, then inspire you to act.

"The Sport and Prey of Capitalists: How the Rich Are Stealing Canada's Public Wealth", By: Linda McQuaig

A renowned journalist and social critic, McQuaig is the author of a dozen books, eight of which went on to become national bestsellers. In her writing she challenges the dominant free-market economic ideology of recent decades. In her newest book, The Sport and Prey of Capitalists, she shines a spotlight on the economic dogma of our times – privatization. McQuaig makes the case that now more than ever, as we grapple with climate change and income inequality, we need to expand, not shrink, our public sphere.
