

Health care shouldn't be a race.

But Premier Dalton McGuinty is restructuring our health care system and turning service delivery into a big competition. He got the idea from Great Britain, where the result has been a race to the bottom.

Public Forum

Hear about the British experience from former British health minister Frank Dobson

With speakers from the Ontario Health Coalition and the Canadian Union of Public Employees

Sudbury

7:00 pm Monday, April 2, 2007
St. Andrew's Place, Activity Hall
2nd floor, 111 Larch St.

North Bay

7:00 pm Tuesday, April 3, 2007
Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 23,
Ontario Room, 1st Ave. West

Peterborough

7:00 pm Wednesday, April 4, 2007
Evinrude Centre,
911 Monaghan Rd.

Kingston

7:00 pm Thursday, April 5, 2007
Kingston Public Library, Wilson Room
130 Johnson Street

Windsor

7:00 pm Monday, April 9, 2007
Giovanni Caboto Club,
2175 Parent Avenue

London

7:00 pm Tuesday, April 10, 2007
Lamplighter Inn Best Western,
591 Wellington St.

Kitchener

12:00 pm Wednesday, April 11, 2007
Labour Centre, 2nd Floor, 141 King Street E.

St. Catharines

7-10 pm Wednesday, April 11, 2007
Black Sea Hall, 455 Welland St.